November 15 Program Walworth History, Part 3

We will be continuing our 3-part series of Walworth History in celebration of Walworth's 175th birthday. The May program was about the Early History of Walworth, and September's reviewed from Civil War until WWI. This program will focus on the period from World War I until the present..

The November 15 meeting will be held at the Walworth Historical Society Museum beginning at 7:30 PM. We hope that all members will invite a guest to join us.

Since members of the Walworth Historical Society tend to have a "sweet tooth" you can count on the fact that refreshments will be served! Don't miss out!

Our Calendar Project

The Walworth Historical Society has produced a 2005 Calendar. Thanks to the leadership of Dorothy French, this project is has exceeded our original expectations! This will be a great keepsake! Not only does it have interesting pictures, but the "tidbits" of history will be worth reading each year. We hope to make this a yearly project with new pictures and events each year. If you haven't ordered one for yourself and for others as a gift, DO IT NOW! They are available at Walworth Hardware and at the Walworth Town Clerk's Office. Only 500 copies are being printed. When they are gone, they are gone! Don't miss out!

Time got away from me...The next issue will be "meatier." Sorry! Gene Bavis, Editor

Gift Ideas from the Walworth Historical Society

Looking for gifts that have a hometown theme? The Walworth Historical Society offers several ideas.

Calendar: 2005 calendar with photos of people and places from the Walworth area and a tidbit of history for each day, $6.50 including sales tax.

Christmas Ornaments: There are a few remaining limited edition ornaments from 2000 (25th Anniversary/ Academy Bell) and 2002 (Firefighter Recognition). Available at $7.50 each, including sales tax.

Coverlet: available in cranberry or Williamsburg blue, and includes scenes from the Walworth, West Walworth, and Lincoln areas. Cost is $46, including sales tax.

Books: Walworth As I Remember It, by Charlie Pembroke, $5.50; Walworth – From Douglas Corners to Gananda, by John Traas, $4.50; and the latest book produced by the Wayne County Historical Society, A Gathering of Memories, $25.

The Website is coming...really! We apologize for the delay. Now that the calendar is finished it will be a priority this fall. Our address will be:
