

Waltham Academy

[OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.]

J. Carlton Norris, Principal.

Miss Belle A. Sawyer, Preceptress.

PROSPECTUS.

---

During the Fall Term, a Teachers' Class will be instructed. Tuition in this class, free.

A class will receive practical instruction in Plane-land Surveying, with the compass and chain, during the Fall Term.

A class in Elocution will be formed at the beginning of the Fall Term.

Instruction in Vocal Music will be given every day (free of charge) by the Principal.

Particular attention will be given to Reading and Spelling; every student being required to take part in the former, and all who have not passed the Regents' examination, in the latter study.

No pains will be spared to give every student a plain, practical understanding of each subject pursued, and no student will be allowed to pass to higher studies without giving satisfactory evidence that the subjects last studied are thoroughly understood.

No town can boast of being more suitably situated, as a home for students, than Walworth. Health, quiet and respectability are characteristics of this beautiful place. The government of the school will aim to promote in the student, industry, order, healthful and scholarly habits, a proper self-respect; a courteous bearing toward each other, a reverence toward God and His word.

Good board can be obtained in private families at from $2.50 to $3.50 per week. Suitable rooms can be furnished those desiring to board themselves. Those who wish board or rooms would do well to consult the Principal.
